App Buyers –Information

General Information for app buyers

To download/purchase an app you need to be signed into the Autodesk App Store. For downloading trial and free apps you need to click on the button indicated.

Free App:

Trial App:

Paid App:

For downloading a paid app, click on the button shown. You can also purchase an app in bulk by entering the quantity you would like to purchase above the price. Note: Currently you can purchase a maximum of 100 copies. Once you select the number of copies you want to buy click on the "Purchase" button.

Subscription App:

If publisher chosen "Monthly/Yearly recurring subscription" for their paid app, as a customer you must pay a subscription price to have access to the app/web service for a definite period of time. After the expiry of subscription date, you will be charged the fee monthly/yearly unless you take action to cancel.

Note: If publisher chosen 'Free 30-day Trial' for the paid/subscription app, then we suggest you take advantage of this feature i.e., download the app for free trial and use it for 30 days. If you are satisfied with the app then go for purchasing/subscribing for an app.

OS:	Win64
Language:	English

Description

The Mesh Enabler application converts mesh features to solid base features or surface features. This function can be applied to individual or multi-selected mesh features or mesh feature folders.

After installing Mesh Enabler, right click on one or more imported mesh features of interest, and convert them into Base features (solids, surfaces, or composites) through a new context menu command. The graphical mesh data is converted into B-Rep Model data that can be used similar to imported solids and surfaces.

The first time you click on a Download button for any Free/Trial/Paid/Subscription App, you'll be prompted to read and accept the End user agreement.

Once you accept the End user agreement the download will start immediately for Free/Trial apps whereas for Paid apps you will be directed to the payment options. When you download your MSI file, just double-click on it from the saved location on your system to install the app.

If the Publisher has chosen PayPal as the payment system for the app, you can either pay through a PayPal account or pay with a debit or credit card.

If the Publisher has chosen BlueSnap as the payment system you can pay through different gateways offered by BlueSnap like Credit Card, Wire Transfer, eNets, Skill, PayPal, etc. Also, you can choose the currency in which you want to make the payment.

Note: When you click on the price button a new tab will be opened in the browser for the transaction. If a new tab does not open, you need to disable the pop-blocker in the browser and try again by clicking on the price button.

If the app is purchased through PayPal, when the transaction is complete, you should be returned to the download page and the "Download Now" button should appear.

If the app is purchased through BlueSnap, when the transaction is complete, you should click on the app download page tab and click on the 'Payment Successful' button, if the transaction is successful. After this you should see 'Download Now' button to download the app file. If you still see the price button, then please send an email to appsinfo@autodesk.com

Otherwise, if the transaction is failed click on 'Payment Failed' button and please send an email to appsinfo@autodesk.com
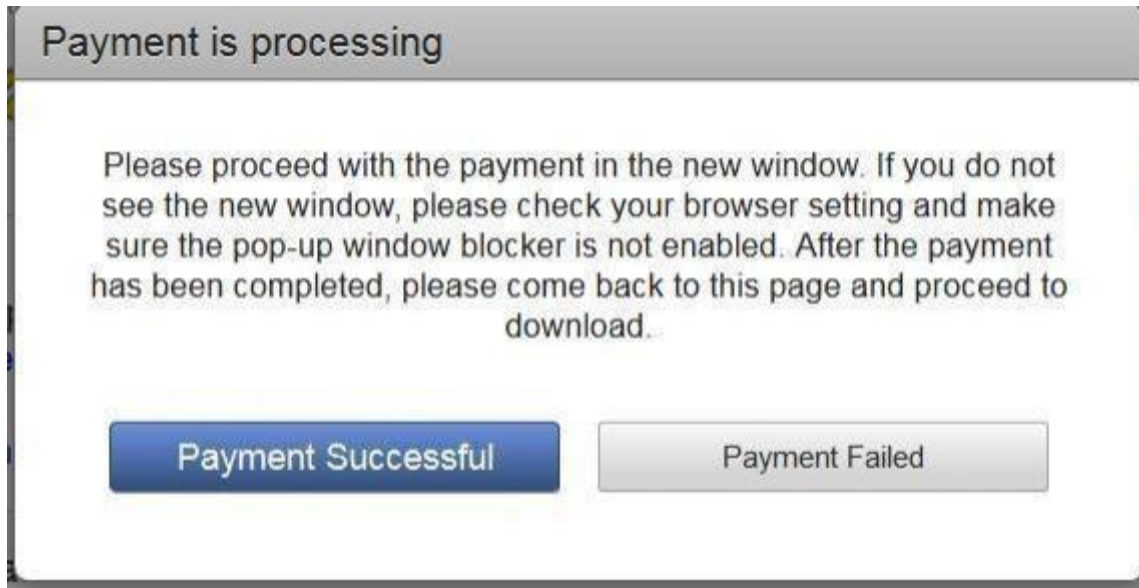

You can view a list of apps you have downloaded from the Autodesk App Store in the "MyDownloads" area https://apps.autodesk.com/MyDownloads. This can be accessed via the little down arrow in the top right corner of the screen.

In "MyDownloads" section you will also see if there are any updates available for your apps.

Multi-seat license Distribution

If you have purchased the app in multiple quantity and app requires license to activate then you can use multiseat license distribution option to distribute the license and the app.

Please go to 'My Downloads' section in the Autodesk App Store.
https://apps.autodesk.com/MyDownloads

Find the Apps with multi-license.

Click on 'Manage License'.

Once you click on 'Manage License' button, you will be prompted to add email addresses.

After distribution, users can login to App Store with the Autodesk App Store sign-in ID, they can see 'Download Now' button for the assigned app.

Note: Entitlement will be added to users only when they download any free app by accepting EULA from the Autodesk App Store with their respective mail-id.

Once recipient clicks the download button the license is distributed, and you can see the distribution record on your my downloads page.

https://apps.autodesk.com/MyDownloads

Click on 'Record'.
