

FY2014 SUSTAINABILITY HIGHLIGHTS

From Epic Challenges to Integrated Solutions

 Autodesk Foundation

1st

Launched in 2014, the Autodesk Foundation is the 1st of its kind to support people and organizations using design to create a better world.

 Relative CO₂ Improvement

38.1%

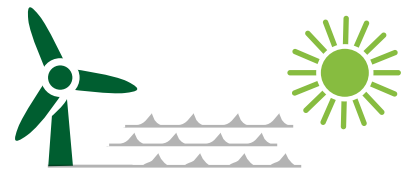

Decrease in our carbon footprint in absolute terms since FY2009.

 Renewable Energy

32.5%

Global electricity consumption that comes from renewable energy sources, according to our real estate portfolio.

 Supporting Future Designers

8M+

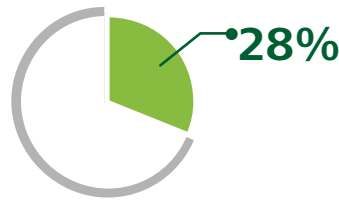

Students and educators registered with Autodesk Education Community, gaining access to our software for no fee.

 LEED Certifications

15

Autodesk LEED certifications, equaling 28% of our total office square footage.

 Donations to Nonprofits

$307,000

Amount our employees donated to nonprofits, which Autodesk boosted with $223,000 in matching funds.

 Packaging Weight Decrease

98%

Decrease in the weight of our packaging since the early 1990s.

 Team Building

3,700

Employees participated in a 16-week, virtual race around the world that encouraged physical activity and team building.

 Sustainable Design Learning

1.3M+

Visits the Sustainability Workshop received since launching in 2010.

